Our all-wool patterns in fall suitings and overcoatings include a wide range of beautiful things. That is the correct word—beautiful. We doubt if any other display can be found containing so many styles to which the word in its truest sense may be so fittingly applied. Do not fail to call on Dickinson & Allen, 435 Commercial street, and see the many hundreds of patterns for yourself.

Young lady stenographer of five years' experience, desires position. Address "L." care Astorian office.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Soukko, of East Astoria, died Sunday of cramps. The funeral was held yesterday and the interment was in Greenwood.

Probate Judge Trenchard yesterday appointed John Hahn, Louis Kirchoff and William Bock as appraisers of the estate of William Brown, deceased.

About 150 persons have thus far registered for the municipal election. Seventeen hundred other voters must yet register before the lists are anywhere near complete.

The steamer Canby has been sold by the I. R. & N. Co. to Frank McCann and Phillip Taylor for $1000. The bill of sale was filed yesterday at the customs house. The new owners will place the Canby on the Grays River run in opposition to the Callender Transportation Company.

Fire Chief Foster is making all sorts of improvements in the department, and a new alarm system will be in use in a few days. Chief Foster will see to the organization of a volunteer fire company in the east end, for which part of the city the necessary cart and hose have been provided. W. F. McGregor has offered to erect a small stable near the Astoria Box Company's mill for the accommodation of the department, and a hose cart will be kept there.

A Scandinavian girl desires position to do general housework. Call at parsonage of Norwegian Danish M. E. church, Thirty-seventh and Duane streets.

A storm came up last night and the wind howled along at the rate of about 45 miles an hour at the Heads. The indications are that the gale will increase in fury and that shipping will be interfered with before it blows over.

H. W. Dean has tendered his resignation as steward of the Commercial Club. President Pye has called a special meeting of the board for tomorrow night, when Mr. Dean's successor will be selected. L. H. Cordes will, it is thought, be appointed.

Mr. Ernest Morton, of Pulaaki, Va. is in the city for a few days' visit with his cousin, Swepson Morton. He will sail from Seattle on the steamship Tremont on the 18th inst., for Japan, where he will be a missionary for the Southern Presbyterian church.

A team of Portland tenpin bowlers will arrive in Astoria on Sunday to meet a local team on C. F. Wise's alleys. The local aggregation is said to be a strong one, and if the Portlanders feel disposed to risk a little coin on the outcome the opportunity will be open to them.

Captain of Police Grammal, Andrew Birch and Lee Herring have returned to the city from Marshfield, Ore., where they instituted a new lodge of Red Men. The new lodge has 50 charter members and promises to become a flourishing institution. The Astorians greatly enjoyed their visit.

Deputy Collector of Customs McCue yesterday remeasured the French ship Jules Gomme. The ship's original original gross tonnage was 2720, while her net tonnage was 1902. Under the new measurement, however, the net tonnage is 2701. She will pay registry at the rate of six cents a ton.

You can't get too good a shoe. You can get one that costs too much—in fact, you are very apt to unless you go to the right sort of dealer—but you can't get one that is too good for you. The best you can get are not always the highest-priced, either; and this fact will be made plain to you if you will drop in and have a "shoe-talk" with us. Peterson & Brown.

The annual election of officers of the Irving Club was held last night, with the following result: President, Frank J. Taylor; first vice-president, R. B. Dyer; second vice-president, E. Z. Ferguson; secretary, O. F. Hellborn; treasurer, J. R. A. Bennett. The board of directors elected is made up of the following members: Frank J. Carney, Charles V. Brown, B. Van Dusen, J. N. Griffin and W. L. Robb. The club held its annual banquet last night and many members attended. An interesting program was rendered, among the most pleasing of the numbers being those furnished by Messrs. Sylvester, Jones and Pringle, who are on at the Star this week. Dr. J. Tuttle is the retiring president of the club.

W. A. Graham and Miss Rosetta S. Smith were married Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. William McMullen. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. J. Trumbull, who enjoys the pleasure of having married the three Misses Smith within the past year.

Advices from Bandon convey the information that the fishing season there has been closed. The run is reported to have been very large and the Bandon cannery packed 7000 cases. The cannery at Prosper was unable to care for all the fish offered and some of its supply was shipped to Empire City. A considerable quantity was also salted.

At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last evening Secretary Higgins was instructed to notify the county court that the chamber would co-operate in securing a creditable exhibit at the Lewis and Clark fair. Members of the chamber believe Clatsop county, containing Oregon's second city, ought to be well represented at the exposition, and that attractive features should be arranged for. It is hoped the exhibit can be made rather a unique one, and with this idea in view the chamber will render the county court every possible assistance. Some time since a proposal was received by the chamber for the establishment here of a brick yard. A committee has been instructed to have a trial kiln burned, and if the experiment proves successful the chamber will probably offer some inducement for the location of the industry.

One of the most exciting football games ever played here took place at A. F. C. park on Sunday, when the Owapumpum eleven defeated the Scow bay bunch 5-6. The East Enders were heavier than the Scow Bays, but the latter played a plucky game throughout. Several times the Owapumpums had the ball on Scow Bay's one-yard line, but the Scow Bay line held every time but once and the East Enders were hurried back. Commercial first team men who saw the game say it was full of interest and that the work of the young men was of meritorious order. The winners are being coached by Roxy Graham, Commercial's right half, while Will Painter, the club's left half, is coaching the Scow Bays. In the course of a year or two about two-thirds of the men on the teams will be available for club team honors, and already, it is said, some of the boys are capable of holding down a place in the big team's line.

It is rather a difficult matter for the showshop reporter to assure the public at least once a week that "the present bill at the Star is the best yet offered," but this really appears to be the situation. Manager Gevurtz has a great show every week, and it seems that the following week's bill is better than the preceding one. And the present week is no exception to the rule. The people jammed the Star to the doors last night, and had the capacity of the house been 1000 instead of 500 the crowd could not have been taken care of. The bill offered is surely a great one. The feature act is that of Sylvester, Jones and Pringle, high-class singers. That good singing acts take well with theatergoers was again demonstrated last night, for the trio was vociferously received. Mr. Sylvester is a tenor, Mr. Jones a baritone and Mr. Pringle a bass. Their solos and a trio were rendered in a masterly manner, and they responded to hearty encores. No other singers who ever appeared here equal the Star's trio. The three Kelleys, singers and dancers, also scored a pronounced success last night. Miss Babe Kelley is a remarkably clever little dancer and received a deserved ovation. Paul La Croix is a comedy juggler whose work is of the first order. Juggling is a rare art, but La Croix appears to have mastered it. Miss Irene Kober is on in an acrobatic turn that is alone worth the price of admission. Her little song won the audience last night and that she will be a warm favorite this week is certain. Mr. Scott sings "Down in Indiana," and the motion pictures are of more than ordinary interest. It's a great bill from top to bottom and that the crowd appreciates it was apparent from the jam at the Star last night.
